THE REPORT ON PROGRAMME LEARNING OUTCOMES OF THE UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM IN ECONOMICS (UPE)

A. Background

The importance of study programs evaluating program learning outcomes is to ensure that the program truly meets the needs of students and the business world. There are many reasons why evaluating program learning outcomes is First, it allows educators to assess the effectiveness of their teaching methods. and curriculum. By collecting data on student learning outcomes, institutions can identify areas where changes need to be made to improve teaching. For example, if a student is having difficulty with a particular concept, the teacher may need to revise the RPS or provide additional support. Second, evaluating program learning outcomes helps ensure that the program meets community needs. By staying abreast of current trends and best practices, educators can adapt curricula to meet the skills and knowledge employers are seeking. This helps students become better prepared for the world of work and gives them a competitive edge in the job market.

B. Analysis objective

The benefit from this report are:

1. Provides evidence of student learning and identifies areas where improvement can be made.
2. To evaluate the effectiveness of curriculum and teaching methods

C. Graduate Profile

The economics study program has two graduate profiles, namely practitioners in the field of economics and entrepreneurship. More details will be explained in the following table

Table 1. Graduate Profile

H. Graduate Learning Outcomes Assessment Result

The UPE assesses the achievement of learning outcomes (PLOs) after students have passed the core courses of the study program. The PLO aspects assessed include PLO-1 to PLO-9. Based on the 9 PLOs above, the economics study programme develops a curriculum structure that provides 7 national personality development courses totalling 15 credits or 23.85 ECTS. A total of 19 study programme scientific courses totalling 57 credits or 90.63 ECTS. A total of 2 institutional development courses totalling 4 credits or 6.36 ECTS. A total of 7 basic expertise courses totalling 19 credits or 30.21 ECTS. A total of 12 specialisation strengthening courses totalling 30 credits or 47.7 ECTS. A total of 15 off-campus courses totalling 20 credits or 31.8 ECTS. To complete the learning programme, S1 Economics students must take 145 credits or 230.55 ECTS with details of 133 credits of compulsory courses and 12 credits of elective courses. S1 Economics Study Programme has 47 compulsory courses and 16 elective courses of concentration. The following is the PLO achievement for the cohort of 2019:

Each PLO has the criteria of very good (excellent), good (good), satisfactory (satisfy), and bad (fail).

The results of the PLO assessment above explain that as many as 86% in all PLOs were achieved with excellent. This explains that the 9 PLOs set have been achieved by students in all courses very well. While 13% was achieved with good status, 1% was achieved with satisfy.

I. Analysis of Each Programme Learning Outcome

Programme Learning Outcome (PLO) consists of aspects of attitude, general skills, specialised skills, and knowledge. Measuring learning achievement is an important way to evaluate the extent to which the desired competency standards have been achieved. The results of this measurement provide valuable insights into the effectiveness of the curriculum and learning processes that have been implemented. The evaluation provides a basis for identifying areas for improvement and for directing efforts to continuously improve the quality of learning so that educational standards can be better met.
