		That's a nice suit. I haven't seen it before, have I? No. It's the first time I've worn it, actually. I only got it about four days ago. You like it, do you? Very much. Did you have it specially made, or did you buy it off the peg? I had it made. I very rarely buy a suit, so I thought I'd have it tailored, and I'm quite pleased with it. I should think so. It's very handsome. May I ask where you got it? The same place as I got my last one, nineteen years ago. Nineteen years? Do you really mean to tell me you haven't had a suit since then? That's right. I don't often wear a suit, you see, so they tend to last a long time. Nineteen years is certainly a long time; and even if you don't wear them much, your old one must have lasted well. Oh, it did. They did a very good job on it. What was the name of the tailor? Philipson. It's quite a small shop right at the end of King Street. I know it. Rather a shabby-looking place. I've never been in there. I wouldn't call it shabby, but it isn't very modern, I admit. However, they're very obliging, and take a great deal of trouble. So I can see. I think I'll go along there. I need a new suit. Oh, by the way, what sort of prices do they charge? Pretty reasonable, really. This was eighty pounds. That's not bad. I think I'll look in there tomorrow. Yes, do. Mention my name if you like. It won't do any harm, and it might do some good. I've just paid my bill.
