CHAPTER V EVALUATION AND REFLECTION

Each program activity that has been implemented is always evaluated internally to identify shortcomings and improvements for the future. Some evaluation notes include: Improving communication between departments to avoid miscommunication, punctuality, and thorough preparation according to the scheduled time. Some events still experienced technical constraints and immature concepts, so during the implementation of the activities, several things occurred that needed to be corrected again.

CHAPTER VI CONCLUSION

Thus, this accountability report was prepared as a form of transparency and accountability for the performance of HMP Sociology UNESA for the 2025 period. We would like to thank all parties involved who have supported the implementation of all program activities. Hopefully these activities can be useful and serve as an evaluation basis for future improvements.

Sincerely,
